Subject: Re National Beekeepers' Association President's Resignation:

Jane,

Sorry to keep bothering you, but.

Today I was asked the four following questions, I don't have answers, could you please advise me.

1. The President announced in the June 1997 NZ Beekeeping magazine his resignation as President, and as an Executive member at the end of Conference (24th of July 1997) refer item one following, the President's report for the June issue. The above resignation is re confirmed in an item still to be printed for the July NZ Beekeeper magazine, refer item two, President's report for the July issue, oops! sorry this is with the Printer, but I can get a copy.
2. If this is an official resignation, should the Executive (?) or Executive secretary (?) acknowledge this to the President in writing for both positions?
3. Is this resignation as from the end of Conference now binding on the President?
4. If it is not binding on the President, what does the Executive (?) Executive secretary (?) have to do to get a binding resignation, for both positions, from the President?

Kindest regards

Harry Brown
